

Executive Committee Meeting Summary
October 5, 2022

1. Chairman Craig Hammer called the meeting to order and reviewed the important dates found in the UHSAA Ready Reference Calendars (see www.uhsaa.org).
2. Mr. Jon Oglesby reviewed the 2022-2023 calendar. Calendar information can be found on the UHSAA website. Academic All-State deadlines were reviewed.
3. There were 53 football endowment games this season. An endowment game financial report will be available for the November meeting.
4. Schools are encouraged to get involved with unified sports. The UHSAA has partnered with Special Olympics Utah to sanction soccer, basketball and track and field as unified sports events for the current school year. Interested schools should contact the UHSAA.
5. Mr. Brenan Jackson emphasized the importance of coaches' certification and the responsibility of schools and districts to track the certification of coaches.
6. Mr. Marc Hunter provided a UIAAA Report and discussed the NIAAA Conference in Nashville, Tennessee, this coming December.
7. The Executive Committee has again determined that adjustments for Summer Moratorium (June 28-July 4) can only be made as an entire school, not per sport or activity. Schools have been given an exception for participation in non-competition service activities such as a parade.
8. Mr. Cuff reminded Committee members that region nominations for distinguished service awards and school nominations for the super fan award are due to the UHSAA by November 1, 2022.
9. Mr. Mark Van Wagoner, UHSAA legal counsel, provided a legal report.
10. Ms. Jan Whittaker discussed Sportsmanship items, including the student leadership conference scheduled for regions this fall.
11. Emerging sports information must be returned to UHSAA in October. The Emerging Sports Committee will meet in November to discuss information submitted by member schools.
12. Mr. Jeff Cluff provided an officials' update to the Committee.
13. Mr. Cuff provided an update on the Realignment of member schools.

14. Mr. Oglesby discussed the shot clock in basketball and more discussion will be in the November meeting to determine which schools actually have shot clocks installed.
15. Mr. Oglesby discussed the information for the Show up for Sports Service Initiative that has been sent to member schools.
16. Mr. Cuff provided the Committee with articles reflecting the great things that are happening through education-based high school activities.
